“GOVERNMENT LIQUOR ACT.”

December 10th, 1940.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the rescission by the Liquor Control Board of Regulation No. 6 made by the said Board, and approved by Order in Council No. 1004 on the 21st day of July, 1921, and of the substitution therefor of a new Regulation No. 6, made by the said Board on the 4th day of December, 1940.

RE REGULATION No. 6.

Resolution No. 9937.—Resolved, That Regulation No. 6 of the Liquor Control Board be cancelled, effective as of the 31st December, 1940.

And be it further Resolved, That the draft regulation attached be made a regulation of the Liquor Control Board, and shall be known as “Regulation No. 6” and shall become effective as of the 1st January, 1941.

LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD.

REGULATION No. 6.

For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of sections 21 and 64 of the “Government Liquor Act,” being chapter 160 of the “Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936,” the records of purchases and sales of liquor by druggists and the reports to be made thereon to the Board shall be as follows:—

(1.) Every druggist shall keep a record of all liquor purchased or received by him, showing the date and the address of the Government Liquor Store at which same was purchased.

(2.) Every druggist shall keep a record of every sale or disposal of liquor by him under prescription, and shall retain in his possession the prescriptions covering the liquor dispensed as aforesaid.

(3.) Every druggist shall keep a record of all liquor used in manufacture; the said record shall include the quantity of liquor used, the date, and the medicinal preparation manufactured.

(4.) All records mentioned in clauses (1), (2), and (3) shall be open at all times for inspection by any Inspector or Police Officer.

(5.) Every druggist shall, on the first Monday in each calendar month, forward to the Secretary of the Liquor Control Board, Victoria, B.C., a report showing the kind and quantity of liquor sold and dispensed under prescription and used in manufacture during the month immediately preceding, and such report shall be in the following form:—

REGULATION No. 6.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(j.) To carry on business as general merchants and dealers in all manufactured goods, materials, provisions, and produce whatsoever:

(k.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company, or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint-stock companies or societies anonymes for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company; to take or otherwise acquire, and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(l.) To loan money upon the security of any and all kinds and descriptions of real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and particularly, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, mortgages (whether first or subsequent) and agreements for sale of either real or personal property, stocks, shares, debentures stocks and bonds, debentures, bonds, charter-parties, bills of exchange, bills of lading, deposit receipts, contracts, warrants, and any other negotiable or transferable interests, documents, or securities:

(m.) To amalgamate with any person or persons, or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company, or otherwise, and, for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another Company or cash, as the Company may think fit; and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(n.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and, in particular, by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(o.) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever: Provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act," chapter 133, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936":

(p.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(q.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognized in any part of the British Empire and (or) in any foreign country or place:

(r.) The word "company" in this memorandum when applied otherwise than to this Company shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereof and the powers granted by subsection (1) of section 22 of the "Companies Act" shall be regarded independently, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects and powers indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects and powers of a separate, distinct, and independent company.
